Re: Written Sample for position of Chief Clerk VII

I am a 'working' supervisor. Although I have an office and maintain employee records, coverage charts and answer procedural questions from litigants and co-workers, I actively work side by side with everyone. I prefer this style of management because it allows me to stay fresh and keep up with the 'goings on' in the court. I can easily spot problems and address the situation well before a problem mushrooms out of control. It also allows me to stay on top of productivity and service to the public. The workers greatly appreciate the effort. In many cases, when I've asked them to do an additional task, they do not mind doing it because they know I am asking them to do something I could have accomplished.

The positions I have occupied since becoming an Associate Court Clerk have been supervisory. As a 'working' supervisor, I have been able to expose myself to the many unusual and difficult situations that arise from time to time. My professional personality and ease with leadership has helped the workers to always seek me out to resolve problems. I have worked in all five counties of New York City plus Monroe county. I have worked in every court except Surrogate's. I have done judgments in the First and Second Departments. My extensive knowledge of CPLR 32 and 50 judgments will allow me to be in constant communication with the County Clerk to ensure the end product has no problem getting finished. Litigants want to know they will be getting their end product in a timely fashion. This increases filings, which in turn increases revenue. I have handled appellate paperwork for the First and Second Department as well. The varied locations that I have worked has enhanced my job performance and knowledge of other court administrators and representatives of outside agencies relative to the operation of the court. My background and experience is deep in applying technical and procedural expertise in Criminal, Civil and Family law.

My first assignment as an Assistant Deputy Chief Clerk was in the Bronx County Civil Court. I was the supervisor of the Civil Division. As the supervisor, I was called upon to assist in implementing changes in procedures resulting from new legislation and new policy constantly. ~~As the supervisor, I had to be in constant communication and consultation with the Supervising Judge, Chief Clerk, 1st Deputy Chief Clerk and Deputy Chief Clerk of the Bronx.~~ My leadership role expanded when I was called upon to chair the Motion/Special Term Citiwide Committee. As the supervisor of the Civil Division, I had to take a hard look at the backlog of cases awaiting trial and the total amount of hand counted cases each part had in their inventory. My knowledge of the procedural law helped to reduce the case backlog. The cases were put on the trial calendar faster (fourteen days) instead of waiting one year. A calendared disposition part helped to officially dispose of cases already settled. A special no-fault insurance claim motion/compliance part helped to reduce a surging trial calendar. I will continue to look at ways to help reduce the case inventory, as per the civil procedure, so the Civil Division in Bronx Supreme will rely less on CPLR 325d to reduce its inventory.

I am currently in my second assignment as an Assistant Deputy Chief Clerk. I am the Deputy Borough Chief of Kings County Criminal Court. The job consists of reviewing a great deal of paperwork maintained and submitted by court clerks, as well as statistical data compilations. My visits to the court parts and communication and consultation with the Supervising Judge and Borough Chief are done on a daily basis. Of course, many unusual and difficult situations arise and I am called upon to resolve the matters. The workers' confidence in my abilities to handle matters has instilled an assurance in their work performances. The knowledge and experience of deployment of personnel and overall management of court operations in a large command is key in my preparation toward being able to do the job of Chief Clerk VII for the Civil Division of Bronx County Supreme Court. I am a tireless worker and a serious manager who will be able to perform the duties and responsibilities without a problem. I am truly committed to making operations at 851 Grand Concourse the best performing division in the entire state.

GEORGE F. KING

HOW I WOULD PERFORM THE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POSITION OF

CHIEF CLERK VII

Of

BRONX
SUPREME COURT

-CIVIL TERM

2006 MAY 11 PM 2:50
JAMES J. SUPREME COURT
CHIEF CLERKS OFFICE

George F. King

Upon my appointment as Chief Clerk VII of Bronx Supreme Court, civil term, I would request to meet with Administrative Judge Gerald Esposito regarding resource and physical space availability. I would relay to him how I would achieve the short and long-term goals set by him. Among my long and short-term plans would be implementation of an effective management system with effective checks and built-in controls predicated upon the accountability of the supervisors and empowerment of personnel. Although recent budget increase requests were minimal, the productivity of the Bronx Supreme Court, civil term was substantial. Gleaned from the Supreme and County Civil 3 Year Workload Report: Note of issue filings increased by 5.5%; trials by 7%; Note of Issue Dispositions by 11%.

I would request meetings with a cross-section of a number of other Judges presiding over productive parts: including but not limited to Justice B. Katz (discovery motions STP and Motions); Justice L. Martin (Motions), and Justice H. Silver (STP-OSC and Non-Jury). I would seek feedback regarding the development of Centralized Parts (Discovery compliance, Post-Note of Issue, etc.) Consistent rules regarding discovery matters as well as post-note case management may increase productivity.

In addition, I would consult with every officer from the rank of Lieutenant to Major assigned to the civil term and every court clerk from the title of Principal court clerk to First Deputy (as well as individuals, who by the nature of their duties have operational or significant personnel oversight-for instance, "timekeepers"- in preparation for the Kronos timekeeping system). Each one would communicate to me the purpose of their unit, its function, and the duties of the individuals they oversee. Any suggestions for improvement or better utilization of resources to aid their unit or to better serve the public would be welcomed. Units would be rewarded if their ideas were implemented, or significantly increase productivity or service to the public. All would receive credit for any of their ideas.

A Chief Clerk must be capable of performing at times of crises. Occasionally, early mornings, late evenings or weekend appearances may be necessary. Crisis management though, should be the exception, not the rule. Continuous crisis management is synonymous with poor management. After a complete assessment, I may choose to begin a systematic re-organization of operating systems to maximize efficiency and personnel utilization. Unnecessary duplication of functions, for instance would be eliminated.

There would be an emphasis on cross-training, consolidation of functions, and convenience and service to the public.

George F. King

WEBSITE:

Another important tool would be to improve and make available a more useful website. I would appoint a website liaison , who would (in addition to his or her usual duties) coordinate with each department and the Information Technology Department. There would be an expanded version of the Bronx Supreme Court Web information with appropriate cross-links. Another, would be on the intranet solely for court employees and would incorporate a link for suggestions and feedback. Bronx Supreme Court forms, updated memos and procedures would be quickly made available. Each department in the civil term (though I would reach out to my counterpart in the criminal term also) would appoint at least one person that the liaison would first contact for this purpose. Though the website will be useful, the empowering of the personnel would be just as critical. Empowerment increases responsibility, accountability, morale, pride, and productivity.

The website is not the end in itself (no more than a manual or a how-to slide-show is); it is merely a means to an end; a tool to aid efficiency amongst departments and to better serve the public.

Among the most important qualities that I would bring to the fore as Chief Clerk are honesty, a work-ethic, the ability to praise others for their contributions and to shoulder blame for any errors and miscues. An omnipresent goal is to find a solution, not to fix blame. Yes, it is important to correct errors that are on hand; it is more critical to implement a system to assess, minimize and eliminate them. In other words, putting out fires may get you in the limelight ; preventing them leads to better resource utilization and improves productivity.

My management style is based on mutual respect, cooperation and empowerment. If my subordinates excel, so do I; if I excel, so do my superiors.

Therefore, if my subordinates excel, my superiors benefit as well as Bronx Supreme Court, civil term.

Fair, consistent, empowering goal-oriented management will be implemented upon my appointment as Chief Clerk of Bronx Supreme Court, civil term.

April 28, 2004

SUPREME COURT
CHIEF CLERKS OFFICE

Bronx Supreme Court
Attn: Lily M Marquez
851 Grand Concourse
Suite 825
Bronx, New York 10451

Dear Ms. Marquez:

As a graduate from Metropolitan College of New York, with a Master's In Public Administration and a Bachelor's Degree in Legal Studies, I would perform the duties and responsibilities of this position 110 %. In my previous positions, I have excelled and giving my all. Below are some my accomplishments that make me the right person for the Chief Clerk VII position.

My current position is with the Office of Court Administration (NYC Budget Office/Accounts Unit). As you can see from my resume, I have held several positions that led to career advancement opportunities. I received these promotions by meeting the goals and objectives of the organization. My present position has allowed me to review subordinates work for accuracy, as well as research and gather confidential information for analysis with minimal to no supervision from senior staff members.

As a previous member of Guardian life Insurance Co. of America Reinstatement Team, I was given the chance to show my thirst for knowledge and my understanding of being an effective Manager/Senior Analyst. I had the responsibility of handling 18 agencies consisting of several hundred employees who were under my supervision concerning reinstatement policies and procedures.

The duties of Chief Clerk VII are similar to my previous employment as Senior Reinstatement Analyst. While in this position, I managed the administrative duties such as reviewing and dealing with 3000 reinstatement filings a month. I handled this with ease. These applications came from all over the country, wherever the company offered policies. It was my job to review the 6th page application along with their medical and financial history reports. Each application consisted of 20 to 50 pages when added with the above-mentioned histories. All information regarding the applicant had to be kept confidential. This also applies to the position of Court Analyst.

As Senior Reinstatement Analyst and team leader I achieved the objectives of the company by meeting and setting goals with the group. I was able to set the example that was followed throughout the company when it came to implementing new policy procedures for the reinstatement process.

I also managed receipts and accounting practices for all reinstatement applications that paid premiums on the insured's policies which accounted for approximately $90,000- $450,000 on a monthly basis.

As a new member of your team, I will be able to fulfill the obligations of the Bronx Supreme Court just as I do now and in the past as a Court Analyst and Senior Reinstatement Analyst. My strong communication, analytical skills, and my administrative knowledge would serve me well as Chief Clerk VII. As a skilled worker, I know that time is a precious commodity. We must use it effectively and wisely. I was able to reduce my staff's typing procedures by 15 %. I accomplished this by creating form letters tailored to certain circumstances or outcomes regarding the reinstatement application process. The goal was to increase productivity as much as much as possible in a 7-hour workday.

I am currently holding the position of Court Analyst. In the first 6 months, I was promoted from Assistant Court Analyst to Court Analyst. I did this by completing assigned tasks and reports on a timely basis. I am currently located at the New York City Accounts/Budget Unit. I am responsible for auditing Standard Voucher AC 92 (Rev. 6/94), Minute Order Forms and Receipts and filling out Invoice Continuation Sheets -AC 2373 (Rev. 1/84) for 700+ Court Reporters, Senior Court Reporters, and Principle Court Reporters within (Kings, Manhattan, Bronx, Queens, and Richmond) courts. I ensure that the courts and court personnel comply with judiciary policies set forth by state government. As Court Analyst, I was able to update some of our forms such as the Batch Register and Submission Sheets.

My next impact as Court Analyst was the creation of a Data Base called The Doubling Program. The purpose of the program was to solve the double billing problem. I developed a computer program that would look at court reporters vouchers and minute order forms that are entered in the computer in several ways. The system previously in place was imperfect and deficient. Staff members had complained that the old program was no longer working properly. At that time, the Budget Department was making the transition from the old program to the new program.

As Chief Clerk VII, I know that I can make a difference. My business acumen, educational background, and strong desire to learn have also contributed to a number of successful projects. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to my interview on Wednesday May 12, 2004 at 12:45 pm.

Respectfully,

Anthony M. Leach, MPA

Writing Sample Requirement for the Chief Clerk VII Position: How I would undertake the duties and responsibilities of the Chief Clerk VII, Supreme Court, Civil Term, Bronx County:

Being the highest ranking Court Clerk in the Harlem Community Justice Center, I now perform the duties of a Chief Clerk. I make the assignments of the Court personnel. I act as the Fiscal Officer and the Personnel Officer. I check to insure that all areas are properly covered by appropriate personnel. I am frequently attending meetings, making phone calls, and otherwise engaged in the activities related to the expansion of services, renovations, security, and financial matters. I also act as a liaison between N.Y.C. Civil Court and the Center for Court Innovation. My duties also involve making sure that building services are maintained at a satisfactory level and have work orders initiated when repairs are needed.

The role of the Chief Clerk VII is to assist the Administrative Judge in insuring the smooth operation of the Supreme Court, Civil Term, Bronx County. The Chief Clerk is responsible for resolving issues, that could not be resolved by the immediate supervisor or his Deputy Chief Clerks.. The Chief Clerk is to perform the duties of his position to the best of his or her abilities.

Assuming the duties and responsibilities of Chief Clerk would be relatively easy for me since I am already performing those duties as the Clerk In Charge of the Harlem Community Justice Center. I was also the Assistant Supervisor in Bronx Civil Court prior to assuming the duties in Harlem. I am familiar with the operations, and rank structure of the Court system as I worked in the Payroll and Personnel Office of NYC Criminal Court and NYS Supreme Court, Criminal Term, NY County, prior to the creation of the Central Payroll Office. I was reassigned to Central Payroll upon its creation. While in Central Payroll I was in charge of the NYS Dental Plan and the Blood Program for all Court Employees within the City of New York

I am computer literate. I learn very quickly. I troubleshoot some of the computer problems, when our LAN Administrator is out or unavailable at the Harlem Community Justice Center. I also assisted with computer problems when I was in Bronx Civil Court (Housing, Small Claims, and Civil Term). I am willing and able to learn any new computer programs necessary for this position. I have within this past year learned the New Family Court UCMS program. Since all future Court programs Civil and Criminal will be based this UCMS program, I will be ready for it's arrival in Supreme Court. It will also be easy for me to learn the computer program Bronx Supreme Court is presently using.

The first thing I will do when I get to this new assignment is to learn who my Deputy Chief Clerks are and what their assignments are. I will want to know who the supervisors are in the various units and their responsibilities. I will also want to learn who the employees are and the unit they are assigned to. In addition, I will want to know who the knowledgeable employees are. I will learn this by going to the various units and observing who the other employees go to when they have questions. Sometimes it is not the immediate supervisor, because this person may have just been recently assigned from another court. These are the people I would go to when I have questions, after first speaking with their supervisor.

I look forward to assuming the duties and responsibilities of the Chief Clerk VII in the Bronx Supreme Court, Civil Term. I bring to this position over 26 years of court experience, twelve of them in the Criminal Court and Supreme Court, Criminal Term, NY County, and 14 years in NYC Civil Court. I have 14 years of supervisory experience. I have made assignments and approved leave. I have participated in employment interview panels and in the selection of employees. I have also filled out Probation and Performance Evaluation Forms. I believe that my experience, work ethic and interpersonal skills will enable me to effectively carry out the duties of Chief Clerk VII.

Candidate: NELIDA MALAVE, ESQ.
Position: Chief Clerk VII Bronx Supreme Court Civil Division

Statement:

As an attorney who has practiced in the Bronx for 12 years, I have learned how important it is that the County be represented by professional, knowledgeable and courteous court personnel. In my tenure as a litigant, I have appeared in courthouses in all five (5) New York City boroughs as well as Nassau, Suffolk, Westchester and Rockland counties. My experience has ranged from admiration of the experienced personnel to pure exasperation of the few individuals who can tarnish a counties reputation with those they service when they fail to function the duties imposed in their job description.

Each member that comprises the Bronx Supreme Court Civil Division's staff has the opportunity to service our constituents in a manner that will expedite the court cases. Beginning with the technological staff who prepare the program applications that are user friendly, and following with the office clerical staff who care out the keyboarding functions, sort and file court papers and general office work, a litigant and fellow court personnel rely on each task as described by each employee's job description.

The Law Librarian is as crucial as this individual is responsible for library services as is the Court Reporter who must provide verbatim recordings and transcribe testimony necessary to preserve evidence. The Court Officers in the Bronx, have historically provided many services for the judges and justices they represent. Their role as peace officers who maintain order in the courthouse often make them the front-line individuals that a visitor confronts upon entering the building. The quality of their work is evidenced by the order that is synonymous with our Bronx courthouse. The beauty of the Bronx is further found in its multitude of interpreters who service the many cultures who seek to protect their rights in our courts.

The court clerks who work in both the courtrooms and as back office support assist by providing much needed clerical support including calling the calendar, preparing written correspondence and examining court documents to ensure accuracy. Finally, the Court Attorneys who research and analyze complex legal issues and questions arising in court cases are most important in controlling a court's calendar for the judges and justices.

As Chief Clerk of Bronx Supreme Civil Division I must first identify the varied duties, tasks and responsibilities assigned to each title received by employees in the courthouse. The duties as I view them include monitoring every aspect of the ultimate civil service performed for the good of the justice system in our county. While micro-managing is frequently frowned upon, it is often necessary to ensure that supportive supervision is present in every aspect of a case.

Each individual having a managerial title will be charged with their duty to provide quality work environment for their staff to perform at their peak. The responsibilities of a Chief Clerk are also akin to the fiduciary responsibilities given to me as an attorney. The confidential nature of the Chief Clerk, especially in dealing with the budget and payroll preparation, responsibilities for the receipt, accounting and disbursing of fines, fees, bail and other public and custodial funds, is not unlike the duties imposed by such appointments as Guardianships, Referees, Court Evaluators, trustees and general practice of which I have been privileged to behold.

My background which includes a marketing major with managerial science minor at Fordham University provided me the business training I need to run the Courthouse in an effective manner. My confidence in fulfilling the duties as a Chief Clerk stem from the varied employment opportunities I have experienced.

My experiences at the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs where I worked as a Director of their East Harlem office overseeing hundreds of cases a year; the hotline room where I supervised more than 60 volunteers; and supervisor of new applications in their License Issuance Division where I oversaw 75 employees and over 500 applications a year began my preparation for the role of Chief Clerk. Later, as a law student I worked as an Intern for the New York City Law Department where I participated in the pre-trial preparation of over 300 cases. After law school and while starting my private practice, I was chief legal counsel for NAICA, Inc. a neighborhood not-for-profit corporation which provides landlord/tenant services to indigent clients. While at NAICA, Inc., I expedited over 450 cases per year. My further experience as a Hearing Officer at the New York City Environmental Control Board, where I performed over 25 hearings per day on a part-time basis while continuing my private practice, further prepared me for the duties and responsibilities facing the new Chief Clerk for Bronx Supreme Court Civil Division.

In summary, I believe that my experiences in various city agencies have prepared for the highest-ranking non-judicial roll in the Bronx court house. My role as an Officer of the Court granted to me on October 26, 2004 has afforded me much responsibility in dealing with the varied cases as a general practitioner. The people skills I have acquired in fulfilling my role as an attorney and counselor at law will be beneficial to the personnel management and employee relations part of my service. It is my honor and privilege to be considered for such a prestigious position.

JUDICIAL BRANCH COURT
CHIEF CLERKS OFFICE

April 26, 2004

Hon. Gerald V. Esposito
Administrative Judge - Civil Branch
Twelfth Judicial District
Supreme Court

Dear Judge:

In assuming the duties and responsibilities of Chief Clerk, I would conduct a review of the current policies and procedures that dictate the operation of the court and evaluate their efficiency and effectiveness in meeting the court's mission. Essential tools used for this evaluation would include the projected three year plan and current budget.

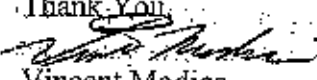

Understanding that there are always challenges within any system, I would enhance the flow of communication between my office and those of both the judicial and non judicial staff of the court. Feedback would be elicited on the court's operation particularly as it interacts with other components of the System and new ideas explored.

Cognizant that each operation has specific areas of concern, I would make frequent site visits. Issues concerning personnel and facilities would be individually addressed. Open and constant lines of communication will be established to assist in resolving matters expeditiously and to satisfaction.

Support systems, such as automation, cashiering and record retention would be evaluated and updated. Educational training would be reviewed to ensure that employees receive the optimum amount of in house training as well as the ability to attend the numerous seminars presented by the Office of Court Administration.

As in any undertaking that I have attempted, my administration and initiatives will reflect professional integrity in carrying out the mandates of the court.

Thank You,

Vincent Modica
